

PAPA VITO'S

World's Best Pizza, Salads, Sandwiches, & Wings

Papa Vito's was named after our Grandfather, Baldassare "Vito" Geoppo. He immigrated to the United States from Mazzara, Sicily through Ellis Island in 1913. Papa Vito's Pizza originated at Vito's Bar in Waterloo, Illinois in 1991. Our goal is to cook fresh meats daily; free from fillers and enhancers, lettuce and fresh vegetables; free from pesticides and chemicals. Even our bakery breads are preservative free. Knowing our four children would grow up eating at Papa's, we put together a healthy menu of pizza, salad, sandwiches and appetizers using our favorite family recipes. Our family greets your family when you dine at Papa Vito's. Our customers are our friends, and our friends are family.

Signature Pizzas

BBQ Lovers

We top our crust with BBQ sauce and pile on either chicken or pulled pork and add onions if you like. You have never tasted BBQ quite like this!!

The Monster

Our meat lover's pizza is a mix of pepperoni, sausage, hamburger, bacon, and ham topped with extra cheese. Hope you're hungry!

Papa's Deluxe

Everyone's favorite! We layer on pepperoni, mushrooms, bacon, sausage, onions, and green peppers. We top it with black olives upon request.

Buffalo Chicken Pizza

Replace the pizza sauce with ranch dressing and layer on the cheese and boneless chicken strips. We top it with our own award-winning hot wing sauce.

Pretty Pizza

Our racing team invented this pizza. It is topped with bacon, mushrooms, onions, green peppers, and tomatoes. It looks good - it tastes great!

Veggie Lovers

We layer the veggies on this one - mushrooms, onions, green peppers, tomatoes, and black olives. Add jalapenos or pepperoncinis to spice it up.

Alfredo Pizza

We top our crust with our alfredo sauce and layer on chicken, mushrooms, bacon, onions, and diced fresh tomatoes

A Belleville Landmark Comes to Life...

The original structure at 318 E. Washington was built as a private residence in 1852 by Samuel Stookey, a wealthy land speculator. He later gave the home to his daughter Hannah upon her marriage to Enoch Primm in 1863. The Primms owned the house until 1904. Then it became the Evangelical Zion Lutheran Grade School which my father, Frank Geoppo, attended. Since then it has been remodeled for commercial use and home to Diamond Lil's, the Carriage House, The Pasta House Co., The Belleville House and now Papa Vito's Pizza.

Home not only to great food, but also GHOSTS?

For many years people have suspected a ghostly cohabitant at 318 E. Washington. The presence and unexplained events have been experienced by many people ranging from employees to psychics. Could it be the spirit of an old school marm nicknamed "EFFIE?" She supposedly hung herself from the back stairwell. Maybe an old stagecoach driver named "Charlie?" This was his last stop.

The Story of Papa

Papa Vito's was named after our Grandfather, Baldassare "Vito" Geoppo. He immigrated to the United States from Mazzara, Sicily through Ellis Island in 1913. On your right, as you enter the building please notice documents and pictures of our family's beginnings in this great country.

Papa Vito's Pizza originated at Vito's Bar in Waterloo, IL in 1991 and with the popularity of our Pizza we moved to our current location a few years later. Since then we have followed the motto "Our customers are our friends, and our friends are family." A second location was opened in 2006 in O'Fallon, IL to great success.

Papa Vito's has always been a proud sponsor of schools and local community programs. As you tour the building you will see that the Belleville location will be no different.

The Geoppo family is honored to have you as our guests. Please enjoy the history of this iconic building.
